Counselor’s Corner by Brandi Olsovsky

I am so excited to be back in Nordheim working with your children as the school counselor! For those of you that do not know me, I was a teacher here for 5 years and am back after earning my master’s in school counseling. I look forward to seeing old friends and meeting new ones.

I have many plans for our students this school year. Currently, I am working on meeting with our high school students to begin the conversations about their post-high school plans, college, and strategies for bettering their high school careers. I will also be working with elementary and junior high students in the areas of character traits, introduction to college, and career awareness.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions you might have. My email is bolsovsky@nordheimisd.org. Let’s have a great year! Go Pirates!
